

The speaker laid before the house a report of the trustees of Abingdon Academy, in Harford county, in obedience to an order of the house.

Which was read and referred to the committee on education.

Mr. Dulany presented a petition of Robert A. Farrell of the city of Baltimore, praying for a special act of insolvency.

Which was read and referred to the committee on insolvency.

And, Mr. Richardson presented a memorial of Nathaniel F. Williams, George H. Newnam, James Frazier, Robert A. Taylor, and others, merchants and citizens of the city of Baltimore, praying the incorporation of a Marine Insurance company, in said city,

Which was read and referred to the committee on corporations.

Mr. Duckett submitted the following resolution,

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Representatives and Senators of Maryland in the Congress of the United States, be requested to adopt such means as to them may seem proper; calculated to bring to the view of the General government, the advantages possessed by the city of Annapolis, for the establishment of a Navy Yard, in or near said city,

Which was read the first, and by a special order the second time, assented to, and sent to the Senate.

Mr. Wharton from the select committee to which was referred the bill from the senate, entitled, an act to confirm an act, passed at December session 1834, entitled, an act to repeal all that part of the constitution and form of government as relates to the division of Washington county, into eight separate election districts, and for other purposes,

Reported unfavorably thereon, and recommended its rejection,

The said bill was then read the first and by special order a second time, rejected, and returned to the senate.

Mr. Bayly reported a bill, entitled, an act for the benefit of Thomas N. Mair,

Which was read the first and second time by special order, passed and sent to the senate.

Mr. Weems, from the committee on corporations, to which was referred the bill from the senate, entitled, an act to incorporate a Fire Insurance company in the city of Baltimore, reported the same with the following amendments,